Name of the programme : National Library Week Celebrations.

Venue : Digital Room -2

Objectives :

- To Promote the reading habits among students.

SVSSC Government Degree college, sullurpet celebrated the National Library Week from 14th to 20th November 2021.

Since 1968, 14th to 20th November has been celebrated as National Library Week all over India, and various programs are held to enhance public awareness about libraries. Keeping in tune with this tradition, SVSSC Government Degree college, sullurpet celebrated National Library Week, drawing the attention of several students. Literary events like Elocution, Essay writing, and Online-Quiz Competition were held. Students from across disciplines participated with zeal and enthusiasm. The program ended with a grand finale. The Principal, Dr. Shankar Sharma, stressed the importance of book reading and library usage. He advised that the students should cultivate the habit of reading general books and the biographies of great people right from childhood and that every student should visit the library daily. He said a bright future is possible only if the student develops such habits. Prizes were given away to the winners of the various events. Dr.N.Prabhakar, Librarian, coordinated and organized the National Library week successfully.

Expected Outcomes :

- This one week celebration to enliten the students of various resources and services provided in the college library.

- Students visitings are improving the college library.
- To improve reading habits among the student community.
