DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH: FUNCTIONAL ENGLISH

SUMMARY REPORT ON CERTIFICATE PROGRAM :2021-22

The English department created a certificate programme in functional English for the 2021–2022 academic year in accordance with the college's policy to enhance students' employability skills. The programme ran from February 13 through March 23, 2022. The course had 30 hours in each session. There were 40 participants in the programme from the B.Sc., B.com., and B.A. groups. The main goal of the course was to familiarise the students with a range of functional English topics so they could develop a foundational understanding of the language's fundamental grammatical ideas. To determine how well the students understood the material, there were two exams at the halfway point and one at the end. Successful participants received certificates from the institution. By the end of the course, students should be able to recognise the English language's lexical categories, recognise some incorrectly used expressions, know when to use reported speech and direct speech, and be able to tell the difference between the active and passive voice. Most of the students accepted into the Certificate programme have completed it and, undoubtedly, are succeeding in their objectives. Students who pass the test are awarded a certificate allowing them to work with functional English.
