REPORT

Department of English conducted a Guest Lecture on phonetics. Employability skills can be defined as the transferable skills needed by an individual to make them 'employable'. Planning and organizing, self-management, learning skills, and technology

OBJECTIVES:

- Understand the system of sound and sound combinations in English (PHONOLOGY)
- Understand how sounds are produced ,how they are transmitted, and how they are perceived (phonetics)
- Pronounce English sounds in isolation and in connected speech
- Difference between consonants and vowels

Outcomes:

On completion of the guest lecture, the following outcomes were obtained for the students at the conclusion

- Help in recognizing both familiar and unfamiliar sounds
- Improves pronunciation
- Develops autonomy in words and sound recognition
