REPORT ON RANGOLI COMPETITION

As a part of Pongal celebrations Rangoli competition was conducted by women empowerment cell of our college on 9th January 2023. The girl students participated actively in this competition. Six teams competed in this event. Each team consists of three members. Prizes were distributed to the winners. Organizing such events help students to remain in close touch with their culture. This Rangoli making competition motivated the students to perform and outshine in their creative skills and most important, work as a team to bring laurels to their house.
